

CHR/Wellness/Caregiver

The Seneca Cayuga Nation is accepting applications for a CHR/Wellness/Caregiver position which is directly supervised by the Executive Director. This position performs a variety of duties related to home visits, client follow-ups, health education, and appropriate social service and medical activities. In addition, this position administers the Caregiver Support Program, a federally-funded program under Title VI-C of the Administration on Community Living. Other duties may include but not be limited to: organizes, develops, and reviews program plans to insure all program requirements are accomplished and submits programmatic reports in a timely manner and as required by the funding agency; contributes to grant renewal applications and compiles information for all required grant and management reporting; conducts community needs assessments to determine health services areas of greatest need and develops programs to meet those needs; works with CHN and other social service and medical personnel to provide outreach/health education to referred clients; determines applicant's eligibility for assistance according to program guidelines; teaches health care methods and procedures, in class settings and to individuals; and assists in planning and conducting workshops as related to the programs. Bachelor's Degree in health/wellness field and/or current RN license, 3-5 years' minimum experience in nursing practice and/or health/wellness field, and CPR/AED Certification. Submit applications and or resumes to cbrown@sctribe.com. Applications are available online at www.sctribe.com and at 23701 South 655 Road, Grove, Oklahoma 74344. Tribal/Indian Preference. Open until filled.

Posted 7/3/2018